

Gods, Mortals and Beasts

Frimley Learners

Learning together and independently – We will explore a range of Greek Myths, including myths about Perseus and Theseus.

Enthusiastic – We will explore who, where and when they lived, warfare, beliefs and what daily life would have been like.

Ambitious – We will entertain you with our own narratives that include heroes and dangerous mythological beasts!

Resilient – We will learn about the Battle of Marathon and how the heavily outnumbered Athenian army never gave up.

Naturally Curious – We will locate Greece on a map of the world, identifying key characteristics of the country.

Enterprising – We will explore the Greek theatre, looking at the use of Comedy and Tragedy masks, before making our own.

Risk taking – We will inform you about the heroics of Perseus through newspaper articles.

Self-aware – We will explore the impact the Ancient Greeks have had on our daily lives.
