

The Empire Strikes Back

Lego Mosaic

Tellagami

Frimley Learners

Learning together and independently – We will become part of the Roman army, working together as a strong unit.

Enthusiastic – We will take an active role in the Roman army, discovering what life was like for a Roman soldier.

Ambitious – We will learn about the Roman Empire and how they aspired to be the greatest city on Earth.

Resilient – We will discover how resilient the Britons were in defending their land against the Roman invasion.

Naturally Curious – We will discover why the Roman Army were so successful.

Enterprising – We will invent our own Battle Cries, persuading others to join our battle against the Roman army.

Risk taking – We will take risks in our own learning, following in Caesars footsteps, by trying new things.

Self-aware – We will discover the impact the Romans invasion and settlement have had on our own lives.