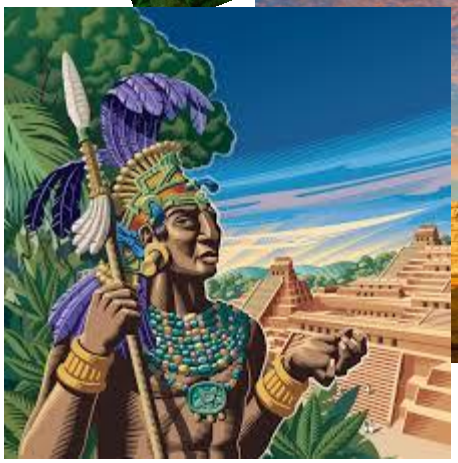
Year 6 Spring 2018

South America



Frimley Learners

Learning together and independently – We will be working together and contributing our own ideas to understand the life of the Ancient Maya through role-play and drama.

Enthusiastic – We will be exploring our creativity to develop Mayan dances, and to design Mayan head-dresses and masks.

Ambitious – We will be challenging ourselves to perform our dances and Mayan Fashion at our Fantastic Finish.

Resilient – We will be persevering with our learning across the topic, and developing the confidence to try new ideas.

Naturally Curious – We will look at how historians and scientists develop their views through discoveries about the Ancient Maya.

Enterprising – We will be utilising ideas from our English text to plan and write our own chapters in the appropriate style.

Risk taking – We will endeavour to work with different people and develop new ideas and skills.

Self-aware – We will explore our values and learner attributes and think about how we can model these in a positive way.
